PRESENTATION BY STAFF:

1. Janay Greenlee – St. Thomas More Catholic Church is requesting a Norman 2025 Land Use Plan amendment from Low Density Residential to Institutional Designation. They are also requesting a Special Use for a Church, Temple, or Other Place of Worship, and consideration of a preliminary plat for St. Thomas More Addition Section 2. The existing zoning in the area is R-1 and R-3. The zoning will remain the same; they are just requesting the Special Use. There is currently a single-family home on the R-1 property; the R-3 property is a multi-family building with six units. The church currently owns these properties. The preliminary plat includes all of their current ownership that has not previously been platted. Right now they are proposing interior remodels only. St. Thomas More is a growing congregation. They need the extra space to expand for classroom activities. There are not going to be any adverse traffic impacts. It's not going to result in any adverse land use. The zoning will stay the same; the Special Use is for the church and church related activities. Staff recommends approval of Resolution No. R-1314-124 and Ordinance No. O-1314-49.

2. Chairman Boeck – To clarify, this is taking existing buildings and reusing them as classrooms or church related activities?

Ms. Greenlee – Correct. They are doing interior remodel only at this time.

Chairman Boeck – Are they applying for a building permit to do this remodel work?

Ms. Greenlee – Yes, they are.

3. Mr. Knotts – By approving this, do we kind of set in motion the opportunity for the church to build additional facilities in that area.

Ms. Greenlee – The preliminary plat process allows that. It brings all those parcels that they own just to the south of them to be contiguous. By going through that preliminary platting process they'll have five years that that preliminary plat will stay in place, and if they choose to expand at that time they'll have to final plat. The Special Use will already be in place and the Institutional land use as well.

4. Chairman Boeck – And if they chose to expand and build a classroom building, that would bring into play the requirements for all the parking that would be required for that space?

Ms. Greenlee – Exactly.

PRESENTATION BY THE APPLICANT:

1. Harold Heiple, 218 East Eufaula, representing the applicant – St. Thomas More badly needs a new church building. They can't afford one. We're talking five or six million dollars and that parish doesn't have it. Over the years, we've bought land in anticipation of the expansion. The two structures that are before you have been owned by the church for years. They have been utilized for religious education classes. This whole thing was precipitated when they came in to get a building permit just for interior remodeling of the two structures. No expansion of any kind at all. Because the requirement is that you have to have special use permit for use of a church in these lower residential areas, and that required a preliminary plat. So that's what has resulted in all of this being done. And it's truly about as mundane a request as has been before this Planning Commission before. But I do want to say I very much appreciate the efforts of all the staff members to try to make it as easy as possible for them to do it, because they're out several thousand dollars that they didn't anticipate spending for this thing – and that's not legal fees because I'm working for free. I'd be glad to answer any questions. We would respectfully request your approval of the land use amendment, the special use permit, and the preliminary plat.

Item No. 5, being:

MISCELLANEOUS DISCUSSION

1. Chairman Boeck – I promised I'd bring something up tonight. A friend of mine was asking something today that I didn't know how this worked. She lives out by Perfect Swing. It's not used. They keep it trimmed. But she said people just park their rigs there – their 18-wheelers and stuff like that. It started a conversation about people also park their cars for sale on street corners and parking lots. Is there some kind of ordinance, or how do we deal with that stuff?

Ms. Messner – We do have an ordinance in place that prevents parking a car displayed for sale in a public parking space – so on Campus Corner, on the street parking, for example, you couldn't park and display your vehicle for sale. I'm not aware of one on private property.
